POLICE PROCEEDINGS—Thursday, Sept. 11. Commonwealth by Bridget Sheehan vs. Vic Shaw alias Shadrack; assault and battery warranted. The Grand Jury being in session, the whole matter was transferred to them.

Thomas Scott, charged with being a suspected felon; $300 for twelve months. Gave bail.

Miss Flowers and Miss Eubanks, two ladies of quality, were presented on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Gone to the workhouse; and there is no doubt that when they come out they will be of a better quality.

Alice Rogers got on a regular bench yesterday, and threatened to kill every mother's son of yees. These being times of war, and the promising to join the Federal army, her own head was taken in $500 to go in the twelve months' service.

Wm. Jones was pretty much in the same fix; he had, however, got so drunk that he could neither stand nor sit, but laid himself full length in one of our clean gutters. He was discharged, with orders to get a washwoman.

From talking her back to speaking, and made a speech on financial matters, which, however, did not terminate as he expected, for he was taken in by an officer. Gave bail in one hundred for two months.

Hannah Johnston (f. w. c.) some how or other did not have clothing fine enough to suit her ladyship; time being hard and money scarce, she appropriated some of Mrs. Wells' clothing, worth over four dollars. $400 to answer felony.

Alex. R. Johnston, charged with stealing and burglary. Continued until Saturday morning.

FROM SHELBYVILLE.—The stage went to Shelbyville, yesterday, with the mail, and returned to the city in the afternoon. We learn that everything was quiet in that section, except the occasional visit of a few rebels, posting up recruiting hand-bills about town, and scaring the people by telling them that they have a force of some eight hundred in the neighborhood—which have not as yet been seen about there.

GERRILLAS DOWNS THE ROAD.—We learned last night, that a force of guerrillas had burned the bridge at New Haven, and all the traffic between New Haven and Lebanon. The bridge at New Haven is about four hundred feet long and its destruction cuts off all railroad communication with Lebanon.

Our city, at present, is infested with a gang of juvenile thieves, who are committing depredations whenever an opportunity offers. We heard of several Fourth-street houses that they have burglariously tried to enter lately. We hope the police will keep an eye on the young rascals and catch them.

PRISONERS.—The up-train on the Nashville Railroad, last night brought five or six prisoners, but we did not learn where they were captured, nor to what command they belonged.

Lieut. Phillips, who was thrown from his horse on Main street, and seriously hurt, recently, is rapidly recovering, and will re-enter the service as soon as he is able.

Officer Barnes arrested a soldier up town Wednesday night and put him in the lock-up for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

LEBANON.—Gen. Dumont having evacuated Lebanon, a force of about three thousand rebels occupied the town yesterday.

Thanks to Mr. Geo. O. Hart, the popular clerk of the steamer Commercial, for the latest Memphis papers.

The pump at the corner of Campbell and Washington streets is out of order.

McClellan Rides, see notice in to-day's issue.

We publish the following precious document for the purpose of showing how these rebels can do some things as well as others. Recently we heard of John B. Murfrees' quiet exit from the city. Now, he, the said John, is Col. John, and is raising a regiment for Brigadier-General Buford's rebel brigade. These men, E. M. Holeman and Chas. J. Dinger, are both under bond, but disregarding oath and bond, are engaged in recruiting men to fight against the Government. Being "authorized by Col. John B. Major" they proceed in the following appeal:

"Kentuckians, we are authorized by Col. John B. Major to raise a company of infantry for Brigadier-General Buford's Brigade. Men of Kentucky, come! Remember your fathers, brothers, sons and friends now in Northern prisons! Remember the insolent interruptions of your homes, your mothers, your sisters, your wives, your daughters, and your little ones, insulted by a brutal, hireling Yankee soldiery, and then come to aid and strike for your homes, your loved ones, and the liberty of your native land."

"You have now an opportunity to vindicate the ancient reputation of the old Commonwealth. The confederate armies are rapidly driving the enemy toward the Ohio. You must fight for the South, or against her. There is no other alternative. Will you be forced into the ranks of your enemies, when a glorious opportunity offers to defend your hereditary friends?"

"We have an abundant supply of the best arms—rifles. Come on, then, my gallant men! Kentucky calls she must and shall be free!"

—E. M. HOLEMAN,
—CHAS. J. DINGER.

"September 8, 1862."

COL. JOHN E. VANSANT.—This energetic officer, who was the first to evince his gallantry in behalf of his country by raising the first company for the Louisville Legion, by pitching the first tent at Camp Joe Holt, by responding instantly to the call to arms when Buckner was about to invade Louisville, who was one of the heroes on the bloody field of Shiloh, and who was the one of the first to see the rebel fortifications at Corinth, has authority from Gen. Fennell to raise a battalion of mounted infantry. This battalion is to be connected with the Sixteenth Mounted Infantry, and to be made useful in expelling the guerrilla bands from our State.

After the evacuation of Corinth, Col. Vansant resigned his commission as Captain in the Louisville Legion, with a view to assist in raising a new regiment; and he has now commenced the work. His energy as an officer, his skill as a strategist, his experience in the field, and his undoubted valor, all conspire to render his proposed command one of the most desirable in the service. Let his battalions be immediately filled.

KILLING OF GABRIEL MUNDAY.—Yesterday afternoon, about half-past five o'clock, Mr. Gabriel Munday (a brother of Col. Munday), who was the wagon-master of Col. Munday's Kentucky cavalry regiment, was shot and killed by officer Jesse Hammon, on Main street above Campbell street. We forbear giving the circumstances until an investigation of the unfortunate affair takes place. A great deal of excitement prevailed among the soldiers, and it was impossible to get a true statement of the affair. Mr. Munday was about forty-eight years of age, and leaves a family, with a host of friends to mourn his loss. Officer Hammon immediately delivered himself up, and was placed in jail under a heavy guard.

ONLY THIRTY MEN WANTED!—Rally! Rally!—$400 Bounty.—Wanted, in the cavalry service, in the 6th Kentucky cavalry, Col. D. J. Hallisey, only thirty men, to fill the company in command of Capt. Thos. J. McManen. Recruiting officers, Neville's stable, on Market, between Second and Third streets, south side, and at Shepard's, near the corner of Market and Third streets, will receive applications. $400 diff. T. J. McMANEN, Captain.

HAMILTON HOME GUARDS.—You are hereby notified to attend a meeting of the company, at your army, this Friday, evening, at 7 o'clock, to transact important business. Please punctually be present. G. D. BURCH, Capt.

Our Forces Ready for any Movement of the Enemy.

Little authentic information is known here outside of the War Department (if within its purview) of the movements of the rebels in Maryland, that is, in addition to what was published in Baltimore this morning, all important portions of which will be found in our columns.

We may add to that information, that the latest and most reliable intelligence from the south side of the Potomac, represents that the rebel army, which has been in the vicinity of Leesburg since the passage through that quarter, or Longstreet and his command (estimated at 30,000), which proceeded in the direction of No. 1 and Edwards Ferry and the Point of Rocks. This, in doubtless, the force has crossed into Maryland, near Harper's Ferry. A person who has reached here from the vicinity of the Point of Rocks says, that yesterday a large division crossed the river at the Point of Rocks, and we take to be a portion of the force referred to above.

Vigilant inquiry has satisfied us that nothing whatever is known of the presence of any rebel infantry on the other side of Washington, this side of the Bull Run mountains. We presume that the military authorities left by General McClellan on the other side, have or will promptly take steps to verify this fact, which, if verified, must prove of great importance in regulating the future movements of our army.

It is alleged that the rebel pickets in Maryland extend on the north some fourteen miles out from Frederick, in the direction of Hagerstown. This, if true, strengthens the impression that the rebel column (probably under Jackson) that was believed to have fled back through Thoroughfare Gap and into the mountains after the battle of Saturday last, have crossed or are crossing the river above Harper's Ferry, with the purpose of assaulting that point first, or of pushing directly on into Pennsylvania, leaving Longstreet to amuse our army below, to prevent them from being followed until they may have time to do much mischief in that State as they can safely, ere beating a hasty retreat back into Virginia.

The fact that Longstreet is said to be hurrying over the river such plunder—horses, cattle, stores, &c.—as he can clutch, further impresses the idea that he means to follow in that direction as soon as McClellan can press him.

We have rumors of a considerable engagement yesterday forenoon, between Sumner's corps and Longstreet's, in which the latter is said to have been driven back over the river. We believe them untrue, though there was, doubtless, skirmishing between their respective pickets, yesterday afternoon, our retreating, being greatly outnumbered for the moment. This must have occurred in the vicinity of Darnestown and Poolesville, and our pickets engaged "were probably only cavalry."

We can learn nothing up to noon to-day to lead to the belief that the rebels are advancing in force below Frederick Junction. Our forces are so disposed as to be ready for their movements, when those of the rebel army are known.

The military may be doing for the best, but outsiders have lost all patience. A small force of Confederates are holding the whole State against us, with superior numbers. That is the fact. Day after day passes and we are insulted by the approach of small bodies of rebels to our very doors, and we hear of nothing but skulking and deserting, one point, and another disappears. We don't lack soldiers to clean the rebels out, but when they come, our soldiers are not there. Cincinnati is seared to death at the rumored approach of a few thousand men, when they have scores of thousands to meet them. How long is this cowardly panic to last? We have observed reports as to the number of rebels, and every exaggerated report at that point is believed. For God's sake let us have a commander that will fight, at least when he has three or four men to the enemy's one; and one too, that will not be surprised; otherwise, let us admit that we are a set of incompetents, and hand over the business to somebody else.

Still a Chance.

The Headquarters of the Green River Regiment, Thirty-third Kentucky, has been established at Munfordville, Hart county, immediately on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, where all recruits tendered will be put promptly into camp, and furnished with supplies. Our friends who feel it to be their duty to aid in putting down this rebellion (and who does not?) cannot do better than to join this regiment. Colonel Jamison, the commander, is one of the very best men in the Green river country, and will certainly get up a superior regiment. Companies or detachments who wish to join the regiment will report to the Adjutant, James A. Dawson, at Munfordville. Applying early and secure a good place. Only thirty days is given to recruits and a rush will be made to secure the post of honor.

Mr. Ruttinger, a man of military education and long experience in the tented field, will go as Lieutenant-Colonel.

Report of the Committee upon Family Sewing Machines, appointed by the Tennessee State Fair, 1860.

NASHVILLE, TENN., 26th Sept., 1860.

The committee appointed by the State Bureau of the Seventh Annual State Fair of Tennessee, to examine and mark award for the best Family Sewing Machine, find on exhibition the following named machines in competition: The L. M. Singer, Wheeler & Wilson, A. B. Howe, and the Grover & Baker.

The first three named, although differing in construction and capacity, still, so far as the stitch is concerned, all arrive at the same point—making what is called and known as the shuttle stitch, each using a shuttle or shuttle and bobbin, on to which all the lower thread, or thread used underneath, is required to be respoiled. The Shuttle Machine may be used upon some classes of family sewing with a degree of satisfaction; but we conceive from their construction, operation and stitch, their principal adaptation is to the purposes of manufactures.

The points we conceive most necessary and important, to meet the wide range of re-quirements in a machine for family sewing, are: viz. extent of capacity, simplicity of construction, ease of management, and durability. The latter two points, without unwinding strength of work, elasticity, durability and regularity of stitch, and quietness of movement.

We therefore mark award to the Grover & Baker.

To Arms!

My countrymen, your glorious old State is again invaded by Jeff. Davis' God-defying serfs. The cause of God, the glory of the nation, and the honor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, all call aloud for action. Come forth from the hills and valleys, and in the name of all you hold dear, for time and for eternity. Do not delay your coming. Let no sleep come to your eyes, or night to your limbs, until you rise in your might in defense of your wives, your children, your homes. A moment's delay may cause a lifetime of bitter regrets, with chains and slavery. If there are any who wish to survive the destruction of this nation, the disgrace of the glorious old flag, and the humiliation of the world-renowned old Commonwealth of Kentucky, bring disgrace upon himself and posterity, let him turn and flee. Now is the time to show yourselves worthy descendants of noble, free, and independent sires. All are now needed, and honor will be showered upon those who respond in the time of danger.

I am authorized to raise the Thirty-eighth Kentucky regiment of infantry, for three years' service. The time is none too long, if the enemies of our country are not sooner put down, and our services will terminate with the war. Any man who can raise thirty men can obtain a Second Lieutenant's commission. Let those who will come to the rescue, call at my Headquarters, on the north side of Market, between Second and Third streets. I have established a camp at the Fair Grounds, in honor of our noble and patriotic Gov. Robinson, whose eloquent appeal now calls upon you to rise in defense of your homes and your families, and never disgrace the memory of your ancestors. The usual advance pay and bounty will be paid.

Mr. Ruttinger, a man of military education and long experience in the tented field, will go as Lieutenant-Colonel.

HEADQUARTERS KENTUCKY VOLUNTEERS,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
LOUISVILLE, Sept. 8, 1862.

GENERAL ORDER No. 34.

All volunteers for the State service, assembling under the recent proclamation of the Governor, will be at once mustered into service as part of the active militia of the State.

2. Company organizations will be at once effected, and elections of company officers held. The names of the officers elected, and the muster roll of the company, will be immediately returned to this office, in order that commissions may be issued without delay.

3. When more than six companies have assembled at a single rendezvous, a battalion may be at once organized, and its officers elected and reported for commissions; and if a sufficient number of men shall be found at a single place of rendezvous to form three battalions, they may then go on to perfect a regimental organization.

4. The State Guard law having been substantially re-enacted, is hereby referred to for full information as to the details of the organization of companies, battalions, regiments, brigades and divisions. The law will be found printed at length in the appendix to Stanton's Revised Statutes, 2d ed., pages 780 to 804. Particular attention is called to the provisions of the 7th Section of the law, which prescribes the manner of holding elections and mustering men into service.

5. All good and loyal citizens of the Commonwealth, within the military age, and urgently called upon to enroll themselves as members of the State Guard, so as to be ready for service as soon as the arms and equipments can be provided; in the meantime, military instruction may be obtained by drill without arms.

6. Muster rolls and blanks will be furnished on application to this Department. By order of the Governor.

J. W. FINNELL,
Adj. Gen. Ky. Vol.

HEADQUARTERS LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY,
LOUISVILLE, Sept. 4, 1862.

Special Order, No. 87.

EXTRACT.

VI. All business houses will be closed at four (4) o'clock p. m. Any house open after that time will be occupied by the military; this to be continued until further orders.

VII. All drinking saloons, bars of hotels and all other places where spirits are sold at retail, will be immediately closed on publication of this order, and not opened until further orders.

VIII. All assembling of persons about the hotels is prohibited. Hotels will be closed if such assembling is permitted. All persons are ordered to enroll themselves and drill according to orders of Gen. Tilgham. Persons not enrolling themselves will confine themselves to their houses.

IX. Officers and soldiers are prohibited from remaining on the street without being on duty, or by written authority, and all such persons will be arrested, imprisoned and otherwise punished.

All brigades and regimental commanders will see that no soldier leaves his camp. Major R. S. Granger, U. S. A., will, with adequate force, see that this order is executed in that portion of the city east of Sixth street. Col. Dent, with adequate force, will see that this order is executed west of Sixth street.

By order of Brig. Gen. Boyle,
A. C. SEMPLE,
A. A. G.

The following joint instructions, issued from the Headquarters of the Provost General and the Louisville barracks, are given for the information of the citizens of Louisville:

Billiard saloons, livery stables, newspapers, printing offices, bakeries, drug stores, barber shops, bath houses, undertakers, cigar establishments (connected with hotels), eating houses (if bars are attached), liquor must be removed, and proprietors must give positive pledges not to sell or evade this order, directly or indirectly, or keep open their establishments as usual.

Wholesale and retail groceries are permitted to keep open until 4 o'clock p. m., but no liquor to be sold.

Special permission will be granted to all establishments where work is done for the State or General Government, on certificate of some State or Government officer.

Certificates of enrollment will be sufficient authority to pass throughout the city. Passes signed by either Col. Dent or Maj. Granger, will be sufficient within the limits of the city.

Proof of loyalty of all persons over 40 and under 18 years of age, and who have not enrolled themselves, will be sufficient pass throughout the city. The oath of allegiance before a magistrate is the test of loyalty required.

Persons of this class are only good until 9 o'clock p. m.

(Signed) Col. HENRY DENT,
Provost General.

(Official) Maj. R. S. GRANGER, with Infantry Band.
Geo. E. SCOTT, Lieut. and Post Aid.

HEADQUARTERS PROVOST MARSHAL GEN. KY.,
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 10, 1862.

GENERAL ORDER No. 1.

1. Provost Marshals in the Department commanded by Brig. Gen. Boyle are hereby notified, that in obedience to General Order No. 34, I have appointed and have entered upon the discharge of the duties of Provost Marshal General of this Department.

2. The Federal and State authorities, being now in harmony, it is intended as soon as possible to have over to the State authorities the duty of keeping peace in the State. In the mean while, indiscriminate arrests are strongly condemned. No arrests must be made, except for such causes as are set forth in General Order No. 34, from the Headquarters of Gen. Boyle. The charge must be specific and supported by the written affidavit of one or more responsible parties.

3. Prisoners must not be sent to these Headquarters without the charges and proof. The cost of holding prisoners shall not exceed forty cents per day.

4. Provost Marshals and Home Guards organized by him, act voluntarily and without compensation. Their subsistence when on duty must be furnished by the counties in which they act.

HENRY DENT,
Provost Marshal General.

HEADQUARTERS KENTUCKY VOLUNTEERS,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
LOUISVILLE, Sept. 6, 1862.

Special Order, No. 37.

The following persons are authorized to issue passes to persons desiring to leave the State:

Hon. D. C. Wickliffe, Secretary of State.
John W. Finnell, Adjutant-General.
W. A. Bentley, Quartermaster-General.

Capt. H. C. McDowell, A. A. G., General Boyle's staff.
Capt. A. C. Semple, A. A. G., General Boyle's staff.

Lieut. Wm. Boyle, Aid to General Boyle.
Lieut. B. N. Hobbs, Aid to General Boyle.
Lieut. Nat. Wolfe, Aid to General Boyle.

By order of the Governor,
JOHN W. FINNELL,
Adjutant-General Kentucky Volunteers.

HEADQUARTERS PROVOST MARSHAL GEN'L OF KY.,
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 16, 1862.

GENERAL ORDER No. 2.

1st. Complaints have been made to these Headquarters that some of the Provost Marshals have taken money for passes, bonds, &c. Such conduct cannot be too strongly condemned, and Provost Marshals who do so hereafter will be held responsible, and will be arrested and brought to these Headquarters.

EDUCATIONAL.

Georgetown College, Ky.

THE NEXT SESSION OF THIS INSTITUTION will commence on the first Monday in September.

Faculty.

D. R. CAMPBELL, LL. D., President and Professor of Natural Science and Mathematics.

DANFORTH THOMAS, M. A., Professor of the Greek and Latin Languages.

J. E. KIRKMAN, A. M., Professor of Natural Science and Mathematics.

J. F. BUCKER, A. M., Professor of Mathematics.

The Trustees are determined to carry this Institution through the present crisis in the affairs of the country. Through the students will be necessarily much less than in times of peace, yet, through such a faculty and the advantages of the most complete Library and Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus in the country it is hoped a fair class will be maintained. Whether the College will go on as usual, depends on the action of the National Association.
